

1. What are the 3 basic technologies needed to run a website?

The first thing is you need to copy your website to a public server. Then you must have a have ISP host your website. Finally, you must have a domain name.

2. What are local files, what are web servers, what is FTP and how are they related?

Local files are just web-pages, images and such that are added to the website.

Web servers are connects to the internet network, usually though an ISP. FTP is a protocol for transferring files from one computer to the next.

3. What is AFS Space and what does it allow you to do?

AFS space is the MSU Network file storaging system, it allows MSU students and faculty to be able to store documents, web-pages and more online.

4. What is the URL for the web space MSU provides for you in your AFS space?

www.msu.edu/~claycass